

SHRI Engage – Making Employee Benefits Relevant to your Employees

16 February 2012, Thursday | 2:00pm to 5:00pm | SHRI @ The Verge, TR 9

What is inside your employee's mind? – Attract, motivate and retain your talents effectively

Discover:

- the most recent employment and HR trends in Singapore and Asia
- how you can make your employee benefits relevant to your employees
- how to minimise duplication of your resources to implement your employee benefits programme
- how to maximise your employee benefits to attract, motivate and retain your talent at all times

About the Speaker:

Kylie Tan specialises in health insurance and integrated employee benefits. Having started her career in the financial services industry with a leading insurer, she initiated and led the development of a partnership with an established healthcare group. She later joined an insurance broking firm to partner with healthcare providers and support groups to lobby for coverage for children born with congenital anomalies.

Kylie's passion remains in client education. She continues to work with financial institutions, insurers, healthcare partners and various organisations to deliver the benefits of health care and insurance to the workplace.
