Michael is the first recipient of the Spirit of Service Award (2011) by the Asia Professional Speakers Singapore, a Ronald Reagan Gold Medal winner for business leadership and a Businessman of the Year in the USA. Michael was Singapore's first CSP (Certified Speaking Professional). The CSP designation is an independent audit of a speaker and his business for expertise, eloquence, enterprise and ethics.

The independent audit group, at the behest of the Global Speakers Federation (GSF), reviewed Podolinsky International Pte Ltd by interviewing and surveying clients, reviewing and evaluating five years of business practices including ethics, customer service and follow through, the return on investment received by our clients and the speaking ability of our Speaker and CEO, Michael Podolinsky CSP.

Michael is CEO of one of fewer than 640 businesses worldwide who passed with flying colors out of over 15,000+ speakers in the profession. A Singapore PR, Michael works across AsiaPac from NZ to Saudi Arabia, Philippines to Australia, Sri Lanka to China and Vietnam to Pakistan. He is a member of the Singapore Productivity Association and gave the closing keynote to their June 2011 Team Excellence, Innovation and Productivity Conference and keynoted the inaugural Singapore MICE Forum 2011 on Productivity and Innovation.

Testimonials of Productivity Book:

"In his book, Mike turns productivity on its head and makes it fun to read. What's even more gratifying is that the reader can readily put to good use his concepts and ideas which are holistic and practical."

Ronald Tan Executive Director of SIM

'This book is a terrific guide and excellent resource for anyone wanting to boost their workplace and personal productivity and to achieve goals in line with their life's priorities.'
